

Get around Elsinore

With a wheelchair, baby prams and walking aids

Elsinore Walk - a cultural promenade
 The Elsinore Walk is a cultural promenade where you can discover 20 of our most cultural points of interests. The route is marked with a dotted line throughout the city, and a free guide book written in seven languages is available from the route's institutions.

The route has been approved for people with reduced mobility and wheelchair users by the Danish Disability Counsel. You can find instructions in the guide book or read more about the walk at helsingor.dk/walk
